Sobel & Co. Welcomes Thomashow & Associates

Livingston, NJ. On January 1, 2016, the Certified Public Accounting firm, Thomashow & Associates merged with Livingston's Sobel & Co., bringing added value to both organizations as they start the New Year together. "Since their inception in 1990, the Westfield-based firm has been very successful under founder Barry Thomashow's leadership," noted Sobel & Co., Managing Partner Alan Sobel. "They have served a wide range of individuals and companies with a depth of knowledge that focused on their clients' challenges. Barry is especially appreciated for his tax strategies and sophisticated tax planning advice by the affluent individuals and families he serves. We know the firm will fit in seamlessly, embracing the Sobel & Co. philosophy and work ethic while contributing to our aggressive growth goals for the coming year."

For the past 25 years, Thomashow & Associates has provided clients with the highest quality accounting, tax, financial, and management services, offering an outstanding level of personalized service to each client. "I am proud that our firm has always adhered to a culture that continually sought to develop the staff, specialized expertise and technologies to meet our clients' current requirements and to anticipate their future needs. This is one of the basic principles at Sobel & Co. as well," said Barry Thomashow. "Recognizing their deep commitment to living their core values and to constantly improving every aspect of the firm is one of the most significant reasons we were interested in merging with Sobel & Co."

Thomashow and his staff will initially divide their time between their Westfield office and Sobel & Co.'s Livingston space during the first quarter of 2016 to ensure a smooth transition for their clients and business colleagues during the profession's busiest season. The expectation is to relocate full time to Livingston on or before May 1.
