Sobel & Co Welcomes New Partner

Livingston, New Jersey. On October 1, 2018 David Capodanno, CPA, joined Sobel & Co. as a Member of the Firm. “Dave is a seasoned professional who has built his strong reputation in the tri-state area by combining technical expertise and business consulting to add real value for the business community,” said Alan Sobel, Managing Member of Sobel & Co. “We are thrilled to have him assume an integral role in our leadership group. We look forward to drawing on his expertise serving family-owned businesses in key industries including manufacturing, distribution, specifically companies in the food sector, in addition to logistics and real estate.”

Prior to joining SobelCo, Dave career has spanned more than two decades as an Audit and Private Business Partner at international and regional public accounting firms. His background also includes a unique experience as the Controller and Principal Accounting Officer of a publicly traded company.

Dave has always focused on building and maintaining meaningful, personal relationships. His commitment to establishing and achieving his personal and professional goals is clear. “I am looking forward to applying my knowledge and experience to guide our clients and support our colleagues, as well as to continuing my dedication to the business community by serving on various boards and as a volunteer.”
