Monica Kaden Joins Sobel Valuations

On Monday April 22, 2019, Monica H. Kaden joined Sobel Valuations, assuming the title of Director of Business Valuations.

“Monica’s skill set, which combines technical knowledge and a wide range of real world experiences in key areas such as divorce and shareholder disputes, valuing intangible assets, calculating lost profits, performing purchase price allocations, valuing businesses for sale or purchase, and much more, are the perfect complement to the vision that is fueling growth in our valuations group. Her expertise in the Healthcare industry, including physician practices and healthcare centers, is a perfect complement to our existing industry expertise” noted Frank Merenda, Managing Director of Sobel Valuations LLC.

Monica is a seasoned professional whose dynamic career began with a role in the corporate finance group at a Big Four firm and then continued as she transitioned to serving at several large regional accounting firms where she gained a depth of expertise performing business valuations and economic damage calculations while also developing a strong reputation for her capabilities when testifying as a business valuation expert.

“Bringing Monica on board as a Director of Business Valuations strongly reinforces our commitment to the strategic expansion of our forensic and valuations area,” noted Rebecca Fitzhugh, Member of the Firm and Member in Charge of the Forensic Services Practice. “Her years of experience in this field add real value for our clients and the centers of influence who work closely with us, broadening our scope and our competencies in addressing complicated and complex calculations.”

Monica has been widely recognized throughout her career, much sought after as a thought leader and regarded for her many speaking engagements and for the published articles she has authored over the years. Her responsibilities at Sobel Valuations will continue to evolve as the firm takes full advantage of the opportunity to leverage her leadership skills, business experience, and stature in the community.

About SobelCo and Sobel Valuations LLC

SobelCo, established in Newark, New Jersey, has been successfully serving entrepreneurial and privately-held businesses since its inception in 1956. Today the firm operates from offices in Livingston and Woodcliff Lake, New Jersey and Paoli, Pennsylvania with over 170 professionals throughout the organization. SobelCo is recognized as a leader in the area, appreciated for its multi-disciplinary capabilities and its client-centric culture and values. Over the decades the firm has enjoyed a reputation for assisting both the middle market corporate and nonprofit communities with its accounting, tax and business advisory expertise. But for more than 60 years the firm has also demonstrated its unparalleled commitment to change, addressing clients’ needs as they evolve.

The 2018 launch of Sobel Valuations LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of SobelCo, reinforced the firm’s strong emphasis on providing the forensic, valuations and litigation support services that are integral to its mission and vision for delivering personal attention and sophisticated solutions for today’s business owners and C Suite leaders. Sobel Valuations LLC, through its predecessor company EAC Valuations, LLC, brings nearly 50 years of experience, completing more than 14,000 appraisals of business equity, intangible assets, and tangible assets including commercial and industrial real estate and machinery and equipment.
